Draft notification.

In exercise of the powers conferred by clauses (a), (b) and (c) of section 138 of the Bengal Local Self-Government Act of 1885 (Bengal Act III of 1885), the Government of Bengal (Ministry of Local Self-Government) are pleased to make the following amendments in the notification, dated the 11th February 1886, and in the rules published thereunder :—

Amendments.

1. In the third line of the Bengal Government notification of the 11th February 1886, after the figures "138" insert the letter and brackets "(a)."

2. After rule 75 of the said rules insert the following, namely :—

"Election of Chairman and Vice-Chairman.

75A. When any orders under section 22 or sub-section (1) of section 29 of the Bengal Local Self-Government Act of 1885 have been received by a District Board, a special meeting of the Board, at which there shall be a quorum, shall be held for the election of a Chairman within one month,—

(a) in the case of a newly constituted or reconstituted District Board, from the date on which the names of the elected members and the names or official designation of the appointed members of the Board shall have been published in the Calcutta Gazette, and

(b) in any other case, from the date of the receipt by the Board of the said orders directing the election of a Chairman.

75B. (1) Whenever a meeting of a newly constituted or reconstituted District Board is held for the purpose of electing a Chairman, it shall be presided over by a member of the District Board who shall be elected by the members of the Board for conducting the election. The President in such cases must be duly proposed and seconded and must not be a candidate for the office of Chairman.

(2) A meeting of a District Board other than a newly constituted or reconstituted Board held for the purpose of electing a Chairman shall be presided over by the outgoing Chairman, or, in his absence, by the Vice-Chairman :

Provided that should the outgoing Chairman be himself a candidate for election, the meeting shall be presided over by the Vice-Chairman if he is not also a candidate for election :

Provided further that if there is no Chairman, and the Vice-Chairman is a candidate for election, and also, if the Chairman and Vice-Chairman be both candidates for election, the meeting shall be presided over by a member of the District Board other than the Chairman or Vice-Chaiaman, who shall be elected by the members of the Board for the purpose of conducting the election of the Chairman. The President in such case must be duly proposed and seconded and must not be a candidate for the office of Chairman.

75C. If only one member is proposed and seconded as President, he shall be deemed to be duly elected as such. If more than one member is proposed and seconded, the members present shall decide the election by vote. The votes may be taken by voices or by show of hands.

75D. If the votes for two or more members proposed as President of the meeting are equal, then the selection of one of them shall be decided by lot.

75E. The election of the Chairman of the District Board shall proceed as follows :—

(a) Any member present may propose a candidate either by name or by virtue of his office for the office of Chairman.

(b) No candidature shall be taken into consideration unless it has been seconded by a member other than the proposer.

(c) If one duly nominated candidate duly stands for election, the President shall forthwith declare such candidate to be elected.

(d) When the names of all the candidates proposed and seconded have been ascertained, the President shall hand to each member a voting paper in which will have been entered up the names of the candidates who have been duly nominated, and shall ask each member to record his vote by placing the mark X opposite the name of the candidate whom he prefers.

(e) The voting paper shall be invalid if the mark X is placed opposite the name of more than one candidate, or if it is so placed as to render it doubtful to which candidate such mark is intended to apply.

(f) When the voting has been completed, each member shall sign his voting paper and shall hand the same to the President. Without such signature the voting paper shall be invalid.

(g) The President shall have the right of participating in the election of the Chairman and shall similarly record his vote.

(h) The President, as soon as all the voting papers have been delivered to him, shall examine them in the meeting and read out the names of the candidates against which the mark X has been validly made, but shall not read out the names of the members voting. He shall then proceed to count the votes, having first rejected any voting paper which is invalid or which has been irregularly filled in, on which point his decision shall be final.

(i) When the counting of the votes has been completed, the President shall declare the candidate to whom the largest number of votes has been given to be elected Chairman.

(j) In the case of an equality of votes the President shall have a casting vote.

(k) Notwithstanding anything contained in rule 74 or in the Rules of Business adopted by any Board, it shall be sufficient at the election of a Chairman where more than one candidate is proposed and seconded to record in the proceedings the names of the persons proposing and seconding, and the number of persons voting for or against, each candidate and the name of the candidate duly elected.

(l) The President shall forthwith report the result of the election to the Commissioner for submission to Local Government for confirmation.

(m) Every election made under these rules shall be subject to the approval of Local Government.

(n) A quorum for the purpose of these rules shall consist of half the members of the District Board."

3. In rule 76 delete the words "and if the Lieutenant-Governor has so directed, shall also elect one of their number to be Chairman."

4. From the second sentence of the said rule omit the words "or Chairman" "or the Chairman" and "as the case may be"

5. Re-number rule 76 as sub-rule (1) of rule 76, and insert the following as sub-rule (2), namely :—

"(2) The election of the Vice-Chairman shall be made in the same manner as that of the Chairman."

DEPARTMENT OF INDUSTRIES AND LABOUR.

MINES REGULATIONS.

FROM

A. H. LEY, ESQ., C.I.E., I.C.S.,

To

ALL LOCAL GOVERNMENTS AND ADMINISTRATIONS.

Dated Simla, the 22nd June 1923.

SUBJECT :—Employment of women in mines and introduction of a system of shifts.

SIR,

I am directed to address you with regard to two important questions in connection with the regulation of mines, namely, the employment of women in mines and the introduction of a system of working by shifts.

2. The employment of women in mines.—Section 20, sub-section (2) (l) of the Indian Mines Act, 1901, enables the Governor-General in Council or the Local Government to make rules prohibiting, restricting or regulating the employment of women below ground or on particular kinds of labour where such employment is attended by danger to the life, safety or health of such women. In the twenty-two years since the Act was passed no rules appear to have been made under this sub-section. It will be observed that rules could be made only if it could be proved in each case that the employment was attended by danger to life, safety or health and not because of objections based on general, social or hygienic considerations. When framing the Bill which has since become Act IV of 1923 and will come into force on the 1st July 1924, the Government of India considered carefully a proposal to prohibit forthwith the employment of women in mines by statute. They came to the conclusion that it would be inexpedient to make any such provision immediately effective in view of the fact that women form more than a third of the mining labour of the country and the immediate prohibition of their employment would very seriously disorganize a very important key industry. In the Bill introduced in the Legislative Assembly in September 1922, two provisions were inserted bearing on this point. In the first place it was proposed to prohibit the presence of all children below ground in a mine. This provision has since become law (section 26 of the Act of 1923), and will, it is anticipated, automatically involve the exclusion from mines of some proportion of the women who would otherwise work below ground. Secondly, in clause 30 (d) of the Bill it was proposed to give the Local Government power to prohibit, restrict or regulate the presence or employment in mines of women either above or below ground, or on particular kinds of labour. It will be noticed that this was a very much wider authority than either the Government of India or Local Governments possess under the Act of 1901. After the Bill was introduced there was considerable discussion on the subject in the press and elsewhere. The Jont Committee of the Indian Legislature to which the Bill was referred devoted particular attention to this point. In their report they made the following observations on the subject :—

"Employment of women.—The present law regarding the employment of women is contained in section 20 (2) (l) of Act VIII of 1901. This is a provision which enables rules to be made prohibiting, restricting or regulating the employment ot women either below ground or on particular kinds of labour where the employment is attended by danger. The rule-making power vests in the Governor-General in Council or the Local Government. The Bill referred to us in clause 30 (d) enables a Local Government, subject to control, to make rules prohibiting, restricting or regulating the presence or employment in mines of women, either above or below ground or on particular kinds of labour. It is, we think, generally realized that the absolute prohibition of the employment of women below ground in coal mines is a mere matter of time. It cannot be introduced at once because time must be given to employers to replace the labour of the 90,000 women who are at present working in mines. Some of us pressed for the inclusion of a statutory prohibition in the Bill with a provision that it should not come into force for five years after the passing of the Bill. We think, however, that this would involve such a radical alteration in the Bill that recirculation would be essential, and as we are reluctant to delay its passage, we think it desirable to attempt to effect a compromise. We have, in the first place, transferred the provision relating to the employment of women from clause 30 to clause 29 of the Bill, so that the power of control may vest in the Governor-General in Council. We have further re-drafted the provision so as to follow more closely the wording of the present law. We desire, however, to place on record a recommendation that the question of the employment of women below ground in mines should be taken up at a very early date with Local Governments with a view to prohibiting such employment either in all mines or in particular classes of mines at the end of a specified period, which we think should be about five years."

In accordance with the recommendation of the Joint Committee, section 29 (j) of the Act of 1923 empowers the Governor-General in Council "to make regulations............for prohibiting, restricting or regulating the employment in mines or in any class of mines of women either below ground or on particular kinds of labour which are attended by danger to the life, safety or health of such women." I am to invite attention to the phraseology of the clause. The power conferred on the Government of India is not as wide as was proposed for Local Governments in the Bill as originally introduced, for, in the case of labour, other than below ground, the Government of India must be satisfied, as in the Act of 1901, that the labour of the women concerned is attended by danger to their life, safety or health.

3. In accordance with the suggestion made in the report of the Joint Committee and quoted above, I am to ask for the views of the Local Government on the question of framing regulations under clause (j) of section 29 of Act IV of 1923.

4. The question of the prohibition of the employment of women in mines was raised by the Secretary of State for India as long ago as 1890, when Lord Cross forwarded to the Government of India the proceedings of the Berlin Conference and suggested that Government should consider the advisability of legislating for the regulation of the employment of women in mines. The Government of India took the question up along with the general proposals for the regulation of mines to insure the health and saftey of the workers. The Bill framed in 1899, for the inspection and regulation of mines, contained a clause empowering an Inspector of Mines to prohibit the employment of women when such employment was dangerous, or unsuited, to female labour; and another clause empowering the Governor General in Council, and the Local Government, to make rules prohibiting, restricting or regulating the employment of women below ground or on particular kinds of labour. When the Bill was submitted to the Secretary of State for his approval, the Secretary of State noted that, while the Bill provided for the supervision and control of female labour, it did not prohibit the employment of women altogether; he warned the Government of India that, as the mining industry developed, it would become increasingly difficult to prohibit the employment of women, and suggested that the question of further safeguarding such employment should be carefully considered in Committee. When the Bill was circulated, the provisions regulating the employment of women aroused considerable criticism, and expression was given to the fear that if steps were taken to prevent their female relatives from going below ground with the male workers, the latter would themselves refuse to work in the mines. It was argued that the conditions of employment in Indian mines were fundamentally different from those in western countries; that Indian mine labour worked in family gangs, the women assisting their relatives and helping to swell their earnings and that, when proper precautions were taken to secure ventilation and to make the workings healthy, conditions in the mines were not unpleasant or prejudicial to health. When the Bill was finally considered in the legislature the provisions relating to the employment of women were altered into the form in which they appear in the Act of 1901.

5. Since that time, mining conditions have undergone a considerable change. Indian mining is no longer in its infancy. The mines are deeper, and the risk of danger is accentuated. There is a steadily increasing body of public opinion, which strongly deprecates the continued employment of women in mines. The Government of India accept the view of the Joint Committee of the Indian Legislature that the time has now come to consider seriously the prohibition of employment of women underground, particularly in coal mines, in which probably the conditions of work are hardest and open to most objection. As stated above, however, more than a third of the total mining community are women, and although manual labour in mines is to some extent being supplanted by machine cutters, it is an undoubted fact that the sudden removal of female labour from underground work in mines would seriously dislocate the industry, and possibly compel a number of mines to close down. The only way of minimizing such a dislocation would be by giving the mine-managers sufficient notice of the intentions of Government, to enable them to secure and train the new labour which they will require, when the underground employment of women is prohibited.

6. I am now directed to ask that the Government of India may be favoured with the views of the Local Government on the general proposition that the employment of women in mines, or in particular classes of mines, should be prohibited at some specified time, e.g., five years after the new Mines Act comes into force. I am in particular to enquire whether the Local Government would make the prohibition a general one, or applicable only to certain classes of mines, such as coal mines, and whether the period of grace suggested before the prohibition comes into effect, viz., five years, is suitable. The Government of India are provisionally of opinion that the prohibition should apply only to workings which extend beneath the superjacent ground; there would appear to be no greater objection to the employment of women above ground or in open quarries or shallow pits than to their employment on ordinary earth-work. But on this point, too the Government of India would be glad of the views of the Local Government.

7. The introduction of a system of shifts in coal mines.—In the course of the discussions in the Indian Legislature on the clause enacted as section 23 of the new Indian Mines Act, which prescribes weekly limits of work for mine-labourers generally, it was contended in certain quarters that the prescription of a weekly limit did not go far enough; it was urged that in the coalfields miners worked sometimes for 18 hours a day, a practice which the prescription of a weekly limit would not stop. It was recognized, however, that under present conditions of mine-labour in the coalfields it was impracticable to insist on a daily limit of hours, although it might be possible, if due warning were given to the mine-owners, to introduce at some later date a system of shifts, which would automatically restrict the hours which an individual labourer could work in a single day. I am to note here that the Act of 1923 does not authorise the enforcement of a system of shifts and if any such system is to be made compulsory, fresh legislation will be necessary.

8. From the point of view of the proper and economic working of the collieries there is little doubt that the introduction of a syftem of shifts would be an advantage. Instead of relying as at present on a fluctuating labour supply, which works for perhaps three days and absent itself for the remainder of the week, the mine-manager would be assured of a constant supply of regular labour. This argument was urged by Mr. Treharne Rees in 1919 after a careful examination of mining methods in the Indian coalfields; and the principle of a shift system appears generally to have commended itself to the Coalfields Committee in 1920, though that Committee were of opinion that in view of the then existing labour conditions it would be premature to enforce such a system by statute. The crux of the difficulty is undoubtedly the effect which the introduction of fixed and limited hours of work would have on the labour population at the mines. Although it is an accepted fact that the restriction of daily working hours to a reasonable limit ordinarily makes for a more contented and efficient labour force, it is certain that in the peculiar conditions of mining labour in the coalfields a statutory restriction of this nature, imposed without due warning, would be unwelcome to the miners and might quite possibly drive a number of them away to other employment, where they would be free of statutory interference. If such was the case, the proposed legislation, while doing little good to the labourers themselves, would seriously affect the coal industry and, by curtailing the output of coal, be a source of grave embarrassment to other industries which depend on coal for their source of power.

9. The Government of India are, however, provisionally of opinion that any such dislocation of the labour supply could be minimized by giving the industry ample warning that a compulsory shift system would be introduced in coal mines on a fixed date some years hence. They are inclined to the view that, if as appears to them probable, the change in the methods of work in the coal mines which the introduction of a system of shifts would involve would be to the ultimate advantage at once of the mine-owners and of the labourers themselves, the introduction of this change is probably only a matter of time. It might be possible in the first instance to arrange the shifts in such a manner as to interfere as little as possible with existing mining practice. For instance, it has been suggested that, to commence with, the day might be divided into two shifts of twelve hours each (6 A.M. to 6 P.M. and 6 P.M. to 6 A.M.). The Government of India are inclined to the view that, as the labourers become used to the stricter regulation of hours which a shift system postulates, the time will come when a shorter working day with definite rest intervals will have to be imposed.

10. I am to ask for the views of the Local Government on this question, both generally and with particular regard to the following points:—

(a) whether the introduction of a compulsory system of shifts is practicable and advisable;

(b) what period of grace should be given before any legislation enforcing such a system should be imposed;

(c) what limit should be placed on the working day, and what particular system of shifts should be enforced ;

(d) whether such legislation should apply to any mines other than coal mines ;

(e) if applied only to coal mines, whether it should be enforced in all coalfields without exception. Attention is in this connection invited to paragraph 47 of the Report of the Coalfields Committee. The Government of India believe that the views of that Committee that any such system, if adopted at all, should be adopted universally, are likely to meet with general approval.

11. The Local Government will realize that this question of the introduction of a system of shifts is on a different footing from the question of prohibiting the employment of women, since the latter can be effected by regulations made under the Act of 1923, while the former would require legislation. In these circumstances, the Local Government may find it convenient to deal with the two questions independently, making each the subject of a separate reply.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obidient servant,

A. H. LEY,

Secretary to the Government of India.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 1522Mis.—The 14th July 1923.—The Governor in Council is pleased to make the following revised rules for the regulation of appointments in the clerical service of the Secretariat of the Government of Bengal and certain Government offices in future in supersession of all previous rules issued on the subject.

A. MARR,
Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

Rules for the regulation of appointments in the clerical service of the Secretariat of the Government of Bengal.

The clerical service of the Secretariat of the Government of Bengal is divided into two divisions—the Upper Division and the Lower Division.

UPPER DIVISION.

2. The Upper Division of the clerical service in the Secretariat is graded as follows:—

(a) Rupees 125 a month on probation for two years.

(b) After confirmation a time scale of pay, Rs. 150—10—250—15—400, with an efficiency bar at the stage of Rs. 250.

(c) Two selection grades, one of Rs. 325 - 25—400 alongside the above time scale, and another of Rs. 425—25 - 500 beyond it. The former selection grade is limited to 15 per cent. of the number in the Upper Division.

Special pay of Rs. 100 per mensem attaches to certain of the posts of Head Assistants.

3. Vacancies which occur in the Upper Division of each department will be filled by the following methods:—

(a) Direct recruitment of candidates by means of a competitive examination. which will be the same as that prescribed for the recruitment of the Bengal Civil Service (Executive) and other services in Bengal. The rules regulating the recruitment of these services will apply in the case of direct recruitment of the Upper Division of the Secretariat. These rules may be obtained on application from the Appointment Department of this Government.

(b) Selection of suitable Europeans or Eurasians. The educational attainments required of such candidates will be the Intermediate Examination, the Senior Cambridge Local Examination, the Cambridge Senior School Certificate Examination or a certificate that the candidate has passed the final examination of the advanced Commercial Classes. In this case preference will be given to graduates.

(c) Promotion from the Lower Division.

No clerk in the Lower Division, however, has, as a matter of right, any claim to promotion in the Upper Division, which will be given strictly according to merit.

One-third of the vacancies in the Upper Division will be filled up by method (c) after all the assistants who were recruited previous to April 1910 and are considered fit for promotion to the Upper Division have been provided for in that division. This rule will not, however, affect the appointment of Muhammadans under rule 14 or the appointment of Anglo-Indians to the special branch of the Political Department of this Government.

4. For the purpose of the selection of candidates under rule 3 (b), the Director of Public Instruction shall be asked to submit, in consultation with the authorities of European colleges and schools, the names of two or three candidates for each vacancy who possess the qualifications prescribed. From among these a selection will be made by the Secretaries at a meeting.

5. Candidates selected under rules 3 (a) and 3 (b) will be on probation for two years, during which they will draw pay at the rate of Rs. 125 per month. Candidates selected under rule 3 (c) will on confirmation commence at Rs. 170 in the time scale of Rs. 150—10—250—15—400 for the Upper Division.

LOWER DIVISION.

6. The Lower Division of the clerical service of the Secretariat is graded as follows :—

(a) Rs. 60 a month on probation for two years.
(b) After confirmation a time scale of pay Rs. 65—4—145—145—150, with an efficiency bar at the stage of Rs. 105.
(c) Selection grade of Rs. 175—25—200 for clerks of special merit (limited to 10 per cent. of the Lower Division in each Department) who have passed at least three years on the maximum of the time scale.

The bar in the time scale will apply in the case of those clerks who are employed on purely routine work, such as despatcher, sorter, recorder, indexer, diarist, inter-departmental clerk, file-keeper, etc.

7. The vacancies which occur in the Lower Division of the departments of the Secretariat will be filled up by means of a competitive examination. In special cases, as laid down in rules 13 and 14, appointments may be made by nomination.

8. The examination will be held in the month of August of each year. The arrangement for the examination will be made by the Central Examination Committee, Bengal, who will be assisted by paid examiners, and will act in communication with the Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Finance Department.

9. Candidates will be required to produce evidence that they have been through a complete secondary school course. In the case of Europeans and Anglo-Indians, applicants may be accepted who have obtained the elementary school certificate and have taken the supplementary commercial course prescribed by the European School Code. Every candidate must submit before the 15th July a written application for permission to appear at the examination.

10. The application under the last rule shall be in the form given in the margin, and must be accompanied by a treasury receipt for the sum of Rs. 10. This sum the candidate is required to pay into the treasury nearest his place of residence by way of examination fee and in no circumstances will this sum be refunded.

gunpowder for use in a gun together with a small box of friction tubes and a flask of priming powder, 24 private signals of any Company, and 12 red lights for each boat and life raft carried under the statutory rules for life-saving appliances (made by the Board of Trade under section 427 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894), and a reasonable quantity of safety cartridges for the equipment of the vessel or for the personal use of the officers on board the ship, provided that the quantities held by them are declared in the prescribed Customs Forms A and B, respectively, or in the case of a foreign vessel, in the Stores List of such vessel. Detonators and their friction tubes shall be stored separately. All explosives which vessels are by this rule permitted to keep on board in port shall be stored in all cases in separate, detached and completely enclosed magazines for each description of signals. The magazines should be kept in a house on deck and stowed or ranged as far apart as possible, so that in the event of fire they can be removed or thrown over-board.

2. All inward-bound vessels carrying explosives, in excess of the quantity prescribed by rule 1, are prohibited from proceeding above Budge-Budge.

3. Before entering the limits of the port, the Master of every vessel having explosives on board shall make and sign a declaration in writing that to his knowledge and belief there is not on board any explosive in excess of the quantity prescribed by rule 1.

Iron or steel boats, barges or lighters may be used provided a wooden floor is laid and the sides are effectually covered with leather, wood, cloth or similar suitable material, so as to prevent the packages containing explosives coming in contact with naked metal.

8. No cargo boat shall be employed for the conveyance of explosives between Moyapur, Diamond Harbour and Uluberia, unless covered by a special license issued by the Port Commissioners. Such license will only be issued to cargo boats classified as class 1 in the Port Commissioners' schedule, which are provided with the safeguards mentioned in rule 7. 13. Explosives of classes 1 to 7 specified in the Indian Explosives Rules intended for despatch up-country may be discharged into boats only at Moyapur or Diamond Harbour and transported thence under Police guard to Uluberia or Diamond Harbour railway stations and there loaded into railway wagons for discharge to a magazine declared suitable by the Government of Bengal under rule 24 of the Indian Explosives Rules, 1914, subject to the following restrictions, viz. :—

No charge will be made for the use of the boat for landing these ship's explosives, but the responsibility of the magazine-keeper in respect of the ship's explosives shall not commence until they are landed on the bank, and shall cease as soon as they are shipped on board the boat. Every precaution shall be taken to insure the safety of the explosives while in the boat, but the landing and shipping shall be at the risk of the vessel.

15. Vessels bringing consignments of trade explosives shall be allowed the use of the magazine powder-boat; but, should passing vessels require the use of the boat to put out or take in ship's explosives, such vessels shall be accommodated before the boat is used to discharge explosives brought as cargo. The landing of trade explosives, whether the station boats or private boats are employed, shall be at the risk and expense of the consignees of the explosives, and no liability shall be accepted for damage sustained while in course of landing or until the consignments are stored in the magazine.

16. Masters of vessels requiring the use of the magazine powder-boats shall hoist a flag at the fore-topmast head on coming in sight of the magazine, as a signal to the keeper to have the boat and coolies in attendance.

17. Masters of vessels shall mark the names of their respective vessels on the barrels and packages of ship's explosives previously to their being landed ; if not marked, they shall not be received by the magazine powder-boat.

18. The magazine-keeper shall give to the Master of any vessel landing explosives at the magazine a receipt for the number of packages, and the magazine-keeper shall be accountable to such Master for the re-delivery of such packages.

19. A clerk shall always be in attendance in the magazine powder-boat, and shall receive from the Master the declaration specified in rule 3.

If any vessel shall be prevented, by stress of weather or by being in distress, from landing or depositing any explosives which are in excess of the quantity prescribed by rule 1, such vessel may be permitted to come up to the lower limits of the port, but shall not proceed above Matteabrooj Ghat, and the Master of such vessel shall forthwith give notice to the Harbour Master of his having such explosives on board, and shall obey the Harbour Master's directions relating to the same.

21. Masters of outward-bound vessels, who may require ship's explosives for their outward voyage, shall not take such explosives on board in any part of the river above Budge-Budge, with the exception of a quantity not exceeding that prescribed in rule 1.

22. Masters of vessels, who have deposited ship's explosives at the magazine, shall inform the Harbour Master of the date on which the vessel will pass the magazine outward-bound, and, on receipt of this information, orders shall be forwarded to the magazine-keeper to place the said explosives in the magazine powder-boat, and to send it off at such time as will avoid any detention of the outward-bound vessel. Before taking the explosives on board, the receipt granted by the magazine-keeper shall be given up.

Explosive that may be landed at Prinsep's Ghat.

23. Such boats as are approved for this purpose by the Boat Surveyor to the Port Commissioners shall be permitted to take on board at the Moyapore Magazine and bring as far as Prinsep's Ghat, under cover of licenses to be granted by the Commissioner of Police in such form as may be prescribed by the Local Government, 500 lbs. of trade gunpowder which is the property of dealers and consignees. For each boat the dealers shall supply an armed guard (pensioned sepoy), whom the Commissioner of Police, Calcutta, will select.

24. Delivery of trade gunpowder into boats at the Moyapore Magazine for conveyance to Calcutta shall only be made upon orders issued by the Port Commissioners.

25. No boat conveying gunpowder in accordance with the provisions of rules 23 and 24 shall be allowed to proceed above Prinsep's Ghat. No powder shall be landed at any ghat, other than at Prinsep's Ghat, except with the special permission of the Port Commissioners.

26. The provisions of rules 23, 24 and 25 shall apply to Chinese crackers, provided that dealers in Chinese crackers shall not be required to employ an armed guard or to maintain a boat exclusively for the purpose of carrying Chinese crackers. The boats that are used for this purpose must be approved by the Boat Surveyor to the Port Commissioners.

Explosives that may be landed at the docks or jetties.

27. Explosives specified in the first division, class 6, of the Indian Explosives Rules, 1914, viz., safety cartridges, safety fuzes for blasting, railway fog-signals, and percussion caps which have been brought as part of a general cargo, and placed on board the vessels while lying in dock at ports of shipment, may be brought into port and landed at the docks or jetties in accordance with the regulations prescribed in that behalf in the Port Commissioners' by-laws.

The term "safety fuze" means a fuze for blasting which burns and does not explode, and which does not contain its own means of ignition, and which is of such strength and construction and contains an explosive in such quantity that the burning of such fuze will not communicate laterally with other like fuzes.

The expression "safety cartridges" means cartridges for small-arms of which the case can be extracted from the small-arm after firing, and which are so closed as to prevent any explosion in one cartridge being communicated to other cartridges. The term also includes rifle-calibre machine-gun cartridges if they are of the above description, whether they are for use with machine-guns having chambers identical with those of rifles, or with machine-guns which have special chambers.

The maximum diameter at which a small-arm or machine-gun cartridge can be accepted as "safety" is one inch.

28. Explosives shall not be landed within the port or at Moyapore or Diamond Harbour at any time when it is necessary to use artificial lights, and no explosives shall be landed, received into, or delivered from the magazine when it is necessary to use artificial lights.

(2) The terms of every such consolidated loan, and the rates at which exchange into such consolidated loan shall be permitted, shall be subject to the previous approval of the Government of India.

(3) The period for the extinction of any such consolidated loan shall not, without the sanction of the Government of India, extend beyond the furthest date within which any of the loans to be consolidated would otherwise be repayable.

(4) The Corporation shall provide for the repayment of every such consolidated loan by establishing a Sinking Fund therefor.

(5) The provisions of sections 106 and 107 shall apply to each Sinking Fund established under sub-section (4):

Provided that, in calculating the sum to be paid into any such Sinking Fund in pursuance of section 106, any sums transferred to that fund in pursuance of proviso (i) or proviso (ii) to section 114 shall be taken into account.

Time for repayment of money borrowed to extinguish previous loan.

111. The time for the repayment of any money borrowed under this Act for the purpose of extinguishing any previous loan shall not, except with the express sanction of the Government of India, extend beyond the unexpired portion of the period for which such previous loan was sanctioned.

(3) Moneys standing at credit of two or more Sinking Funds may, at the discretion of the Corporation, be invested together as a common fund, and it shall not be necessary for the Corporation to allocate the securities held in such investments among the several Sinking Funds.

(4) Any investment made under this section may from time to time, subject to the provisions of sub-section (1), be varied or transposed.

Power to Corporation to reserve a portion of loan-debentures for investment of Sinking Funds.

113. (1) For the purpose of investing any portion of the Municipal Fund (including Sinking Funds) the Corporation may, with the previous sanction of the Local Government, reserve and set apart for issue at par to and in the name of the Corporation of Calcutta any portion of the debentures to be issued on account of any loan, provided that the intention so to reserve and set apart such debentures shall have been notified as a condition of the issue of the loan.

(3) The purchase by, or the transfer, assignment or endorsement to, the Corporation, of any debenture issued by the Corporation shall not operate to extinguish or cancel any such debenture, but the same shall be valid and negotiable in the same manner and to the same extent as if held by, or transferred, assigned or endorsed to any other person.

Application of Sinking Funds.

114. Until any loan is wholly repaid, the Corporation shall not apply the Sinking Fund established in respect of that loan to any purpose other than the repayment of that loan :

Provided that—

(i) when any loan, or part thereof, which is raised after the commencement of this Act, is consolidated under section 110, the Corporation shall transfer to the Sinking Fund established for such consolidated loan the sum standing at credit of the Sinking Fund of the original loan, or if part only of a loan is consolidated, then such part of the sum standing at credit of the Sinking Fund of the original loan as is proportionate to the amount of the original loan which is incorporated in the consolidated loan ; and

(ii) when any loan, or part thereof, which was raised before the commencement of the Calcutta Municipal (Loans) Act, 1914, has been consolidated, the Corporation shall transfer such amounts as the Government of India may direct from the Sinking Fund maintained under clause (1) of section 108, and from Sinking Fund A maintained

116. All payments due from the Corporation for interest on and repayment of loans shall be made in priority to all other payments due from the Corporation.

Annual examination of Sinking Funds.

117. (1) All Sinking Funds established under this Act shall be subject to annual examination by the Accountant-General, Bengal, who shall ascertain whether the cash and the value of the securities belonging thereto are actually equal to the amount which should be at the credit of such funds had investments been regularly made and had the rate of interest as originally estimated been obtained therefrom.

(2) The amount which should be at the credit of a Sinking Fund shall be calculated on the basis of the present value of all future payments required to be made to such fund under the provisions of this Act, on the assumption that all investments are regularly made and the rate of interest as originally estimated is obtained therefrom.

The value of securities belonging to a Sinking Fund shall be their current value unless they fall due for redemption at par or above before maturity of the Fund in which case their current value shall be taken as their redemption value, except in the case of Calcutta Municipal Debentures which shall always be valued at par, provided that the Corporation shall make good immediately any loss which may accrue on the actual sale of such debentures at the time of the repayment of the loan.

(3) The Corporation shall forthwith pay into any Sinking Fund any amount which the Accountant-General may certify to be deficient, unless the Local Government specially sanction a gradual readjustment.

(4) If the cash and the value of the securities at credit of any Sinking Fund are in excess of the amount which should be at its credit, the Accountant General shall certify the amount of such excess sum, and the Corporation may thereupon transfer the excess sum to the Municipal Fund.

(Part III.—Chapter VIII.—Loans.—Sections 118, 119.)

(2) After such attachment, no person except an officer appointed in this behalf by the Local Government shall in any way deal with the attached fund or portion thereof; but such officer may do all acts in respect thereof which the Corporation or any Municipal Officer or servant might have done if such attachment had not taken place, and may apply the proceeds in satisfaction of the arrear and of all interests and costs due in respect thereof and of all expenses caused by the attachment and subsequent proceedings:

Provided that no such attachment shall defeat or prejudice any debt for which the fund attached was previously pledged in accordance with law; but all such prior charges shall be paid out of the proceeds of the fund before any part of the proceeds is applied to the satisfaction of the debt due to the Government.

Attachment of Municipal Fund for securing payment into Sinking Fund.

119. If the Corporation fail to make any payment as required by section 117, sub-section (3), the Local Government may attach the Municipal Fund or any portion thereof; and the provisions of section 118, sub-section (2), shall, with all necessary modifications, be deemed to apply.

123. It shall be the duty of the Corporation to report to the Local Government as soon as possible the action taken by them, or in the case of a difference of opinion between the Corporation and the auditors the action which they propose to take, in respect of any defects or irregularities that may be pointed out by the auditors; and it shall be competent to the Local Government to pass such orders as they think fit upon such report, and such orders shall be final.

CHAPTER X.

THE CONSOLIDATED RATE.

Imposition of consolidated rate.

Power to Corporation to impose consolidated rate.

124. A consolidated rate not exceeding twenty-three per cent. on the annual valuation determined under this chapter may be imposed by the Corporation upon all lands and buildings in Calcutta for the purposes of this Act.

Amount of consolidated rate, how to be fixed.

125. The amount of the said rate shall be fixed annually, in the manner provided in Chapter VII, with reference to the requirements of the Municipal Fund.

Exemptions.

Exemptions from consolidated rate.

126. (1) Buildings used exclusively for purposes of public worship, and public burial or burning grounds or other places for the disposal of the dead duly registered under Chapter XXXI, shall be exempt from the consolidated rate;

and the Corporation may either wholly or partially exempt from the consolidated rate any land or building used exclusively for purposes of public charity:

Provided that the following land and buildings shall not be deemed to be used exclusively for public worship or for purposes of public charity within the meaning of this section, namely,—

(a) land or buildings in or on which any trade or business is carried on; and

(3) The Corporation may exempt the owner of any hut from payment of the whole or any portion of the consolidated rate payable in respect of such hut, and in any such case they may exempt the owner of the land on which the hut is built, or not, as they think fit.

(4) The Corporation may, by resolution, exempt from the consolidated rate all lands and buildings the annual valuation of which, as determined under this chapter, does not exceed twenty rupees or such smaller sum as may be specified in such resolution:

(Part IV.—Chapter X.—The consolidated rate.— Section 127.)

Provided that no person shall be entitled to claim the benefit of such exemption if he owns or occupies more than one piece of land or more than one building and the aggregate annual valuation of all the lands or buildings owned or occupied by him exceeds twenty rupees or the said smaller sum.

Assessment of lands and buildings to the consolidated rate.

Annual value of land or building, how to be ascertained.

127. For the purpose of assessing land and buildings to the consolidated rate,—

(a) the annual value of land, and the annual value of any building erected for letting purposes or ordinarily let, shall be deemed to be the gross annual rent at which the land or building might at the time of assessment reasonably be expected to let from year to year, less, in the case of a building, an allowance of ten per cent. for the cost of repairs and for all other expenses necessary to maintain the building in a state to command such gross rent; and

(b) the annual value of any building not erected for letting purposes and not ordinarily let shall be deemed to be five per cent. on the sum obtained by adding the estimated present cost of erecting the building, less a reasonable amount to be deducted on account of depreciation (if any), to the estimated present value of the land valued with the building as part of the same premises:

Provided as follows:—

(i) the annual value of a bustee shall be deemed to be the gross annual rent at which the land contained within it, excluding the lands which have been left vacant for the purposes of any bustee street prescribed in or under a standard plan approved by the Corporation under Chapter XXII, might reasonably be expected to let from year to year, plus the gross annual rent at which the huts erected thereon might reasonably be expected to let from year to year, after deducting therefrom the rent of the land and an allowance of ten per cent. for the cost of repairs and for all expenses necessary to maintain such huts in a state to command such gross rent;

(ii) in calculating the value of any land or building under this section, the value of any machinery on such land or in such building shall be excluded, but all fixtures including lifts and electric and other fittings which add to the convenience of the building shall be valued, subject in the case of a lift to such deduction from the valuation, as the Executive Officer may think proper, on account of the cost of repairs to, maintenance of, and attendance on, such lift;

(Part IV.—Chapter X.—The consolidated rate.— Sections 128, 129.)

(iii) if in the case of a building valued under clause (b), the annual value of which does not exceed five hundred rupees, any exceptional circumstances exist which render a valuation of five per cent. on the cost of erecting the building less depreciation, excessive, a lower percentage may be taken;

(iv) when any building has been valued at a special percentage taken under proviso (iii), it may be re-valued at any time after the exceptional circumstances referred to in that proviso have ceased to exist.

Annual value of land or building belonging to the Calcutta Improvement Trust.

128. For the purpose of assessing land and buildings belonging to the Board of Trustees for the Improvement of Calcutta to the consolidated rate, the annual value of such land or building acquired by purchase or otherwise by the Board for the execution of an improvement scheme for the purposes of the Calcutta Improvement Act, 1911, which has been framed after the commencement of this Act, shall be deemed to be five per cent. on the cost of acquisition thereof, subject, on application made in this behalf by the Board, to revision by the Local Government; and such annual value shall be fixed from the date of the acquisition in each succeeding quarter on the basis of such cost, and shall, notwithstanding anything contained in section 131, remain in force until the streets (if any) laid out or altered and the open spaces (if any) provided in executing the scheme have vested in the Corporation under section 65 of the said Act.

(2) The particulars mentioned in sub-section (1) may be contained in as many books as the Executive Officer may from time to time determine, which shall together constitute the municipal assessment-book.

(3) When the name of the owner or occupier of any premises is not known, it shall be sufficient to designate him in the said assessment-book as "the owner" or "the occupier", as the case may be.

Entry of names of owners and occupiers in assessment-book.

144. (1) Any owner or occupier may at any time apply to the Executive Officer to have his name entered as owner or occupier, as the case may be, in the assessment-book; and the Executive Officer shall, after giving the parties interested an opportunity of being heard, unless there is sufficient reason to refuse such application, cause such name to be entered in the assessment-book :

Provided that if such application is refused, the reason for the refusal shall be recorded in writing.

(2) Where there are gradations of owners or occupiers, and doubt exists as to who is entitled to have his name entered in the assessment-book as owner or occupier of the premises, the Executive Officer shall, after giving the parties interested an opportunity of being heard, determine which of the several owners or occupiers is so entitled, and his decision shall remain in force for the purposes of this Act unless and until it is set aside by the order of a competent Court.

(3) No owner or occupier whose name is not entered in the assessment-book shall be entitled to object that any bill, notice of demand, warrant or other notice of any kind required by this Act to be served on the owner or occupier of any land or building, has not been made out in his own name.

Notice of transfers of title, when to be given.

145. Whenever the title in any land or building, or in any part or share of any land or building, is transferred, the transferee shall, within three months after the execution of the instrument of transfer, or, if no such instrument be executed, after the transfer is effected, give notice in writing of such transfer to the Executive Officer :

Provided that in the event of the death of the person in whom such title vests, the person to whom, as heir or otherwise, the title of the deceased is transferred by descent or devise, shall, within one year from the death of the deceased, give notice in writing of such transfer to the Executive Officer.

Power to Executive Officer to amend assessment-book.

146. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 142, the Executive Officer may at any time amend the assessment-book—

(a) by inserting therein the name of any person whose name ought, in his opinion, to be so inserted, or by inserting any land or building which is, in his opinion, liable to the consolidated rate, or by inserting a valuation when the land or building liable to be valued has not been valued; or

(Part IV.—Chapter X.—The consolidated rate.—Sections 147, 148.)

(b) by striking out the name of any person, or by striking out any land or building which is, in his opinion, not liable to the consolidated rate, or by reducing the amount of any valuation; or

(c) by increasing the amount of the valuation of any premises where, in his opinion, such premises, at the time of the last general valuation, have been substantially undervalued by reason of misrepresentation or fraud:

Provided that, whenever it is proposed to make any amendment under clause (a), notice shall be given to persons interested of a day, not being less than fifteen days from the service of the notice, on which it is intended to make the amendment:

Provided also as follows:—

(i) no amendment shall be made under clause (c) except by the Executive Officer; and

(ii) whenever it is proposed to make any such amendment, notice shall be given to the owner and occupier of the premises concerned of a day, not being less than fifteen days from the service of the notice, on which it is intended to make the amendment; and

(iii) clause (c) shall not apply to any valuation of any premises determined on appeal to the Court of Small Causes or to the High Court as the case may be.

(2) If any amendment be made under clause (a) or clause (c) of sub-section (1), any person on whom a notice is to be served under the first or second proviso to sub-section (1), may object by written application to the Executive Officer, to be delivered at the municipal office three clear days before the day fixed in the said notice; and the provisions of sections 139 to 142 shall, with all necessary modifications, be deemed to apply to such objection.

Period for which revised valuations to continue in force.

147. When the valuation of any land or building is revised in consequence of an objection made under section 139 or section 146, sub-section (2), or an appeal is preferred under section 141, the revised valuation shall take effect from the quarter in which the first-mentioned valuation would have taken effect, and shall continue in force for the period for which the said first-mentioned valuation was made, and no longer.

Effect of entries in assessment-book.

148. (1) The assessment calculated on the valuation for the time being shown in the assessment-book shall be deemed to be the amount payable during the whole period for which the valuation is in force.

(2) When any amendment has been made in the assessment-book, such period shall, unless otherwise specially provided, be calculated—

(a) from the commencement of the quarter next succeeding that in which the notice of objection was delivered under section 139 or section 146, sub-section (2); or

(Part IV.—Chapter X.—The consolidated rate.—Sections 149—151.)

(b) if no such notice has been delivered, then from the commencement of the quarter next succeeding that in which such amendment was made :

Provided that the old valuation shall, notwithstanding that the period for which it was made may have expired, continue in force until the commencement of the quarter referred to in clause (a) or clause (b), as the case may be.

Payment and recovery of the consolidated rate.

Payment of consolidated rate.

149. One-half of the consolidated rate shall be payable by the owners of the lands and buildings, and the other half by the occupiers thereof ; and each such instalment shall be payable on or before the fifteenth day of April, the fifteenth day of July, the fifteenth day of October and the fifteenth day of January for the quarters respectively commencing on the first day of each of those months.

Recovery by owner from tenant in certain cases of part of the owner's share of the consolidated rate.

150. If the annual value of any land or building, as determined under this chapter, exceeds in any case the amount of the rent payable to the owner for the land or building, the owner may in such case, notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force in Bengal, recover from the person who pays him rent the difference between the sum assessed as the owner's share of the consolidated rate in respect of such land or building and the sum at which such share would have been assessed had the land or building been valued only at the amount of rent actually payable to the owner, and such difference shall be added to the rent and shall be recoverable as rent by the owner from the person liable for the payment of the rent.

Refund of owner's share of consolidated rate for period of vacancy.

151. When any land or building which has been assessed to the consolidated rate has remained unoccupied and unproductive of rent for a period of sixty or more consecutive days and a written notice of the facts has been given to the Executive Officer, he shall—

(a) remit one-half of the owner's share of the consolidated rate due on account of such period, or,

(b) if the whole of such share has been paid, refund, on application made therefor, one-half of such share :

Provided that, when any land not being wakf or debutter property, which in the opinion of the Corporation is suitable for a building site, is not adequately utilized for such a purpose for a period of more than three years, the right to a remission of the consolidated rate for a vacancy in this respect, although the land is not occupied and is not productive of rent, shall cease on the expiration of such period, unless the Corporation exempt such land from the operation of this proviso on the ground that it is necessary for the land to be left open for the purpose of ventilation, or that in their opinion special circumstances exist which render it impracticable for the owner or lessee to utilize the land as a building site.

(Part IV.—Chapter X.—The consolidated rate.— Sections 152—158.)

Refund of occupier's share of consolidated rate.

152. Any person who has, in respect of any land or building which has been assessed to the consolidated rate, paid the occupier's share of such rate for the whole of any quarter, shall be entitled to a refund of the rate so paid for any period in that quarter during which he did not occupy such land or building, provided that such person has given notice in writing of the facts to the Executive Officer.

Notice under section 151 or section 152, when to be delivered.

153. Every notice referred to in section 151 or section 152 shall be given during the period for which the land or building is unoccupied and unproductive of rent, or during the period of the vacancy, as the case may be; and such period shall be calculated from the date on which such notice is delivered at the municipal office:

Provided that, if the notice is delivered within seven days of the vacancy, the remission shall be allowed with effect from the date of the vacancy.

Application for refund, when to be made.

154. No refund of any amount shall be made under section 151 or section 152 unless the same is applied for within one year from the date on which the amount was paid.

Notice of re-occupation, when to be given.

155. Whenever any land or building which has been assessed to the consolidated rate and has been unoccupied is re-occupied, the person liable to pay the owner's share of the rate in respect of such land or building shall, within fifteen days from the date of re-occupation, give notice thereof in writing to the Executive Officer.

Rate payable from date of re-occupation.

156. Whenever any land or building which has been assessed to the consolidated rate and has been unoccupied during any quarter, the occupier's share of the rate in respect of such land or building shall be payable from the date of such re-occupation.

Power of Executive Officer to levy entire rate from owner in certain cases.

157. If any land or building is ordinarily occupied by more than one person holding in severalty, or is valued at less than two hundred rupees, the Executive Officer may, notwithstanding anything contained in section 149, levy the entire consolidated rate from the owner of such land or building.

Recovery from occupier of portion of rate paid by owner under section 157.

158. When the entire consolidated rate is paid by the owner of any land or building under section 157, such owner may, if there be but one occupier of the land or building, recover from such occupier half of the rate so paid, and may, if there be more than one occupier, recover from each occupier half of such sum as bears to the entire amount of rate so paid by the owner the same proportion as the value of the portion of the land or building in the occupation of such occupier bears to the entire value of such land or building.

(Part IV.—Chapter X.—The consolidated rate.— Sections 159—163.)

Consolidated rate to be paid by owner of a bustee.

159. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 149, the entire consolidated rate leviable upon a bustee shall, after deducting therefrom a sum equal to one-eighth of such rate, be paid by the owner of such bustee:

Provided that if the owner of the bustee is also the owner of the huts therein, no such deduction shall be made.

(2) Whenever the consolidated rate is leviable upon a bustee, the owner of the land contained within such bustee may recover from the owner of each hut standing thereon—

(i) one-half of the consolidated rate payable in respect of the land on which the hut stands;

(ii) the entire consolidated rate payable in respect of the hut.

(3) The sum deducted under sub-section (1) shall be retained by the owner of the bustee—

(a) as a set-off against the expenses which may be incurred in collecting the portion of the rate recoverable under sub-section (2) from the owners of huts, and

(b) as a commutation of all refunds in respect of huts which are vacant or which may be removed or destroyed during the continuance of the period for which the rate is leviable.

Consolidated rate not payable on new or enlarged huts in a bustee.

160. The consolidated rate shall not be payable on account of any new huts built or any huts enlarged in a bustee during the year for which the valuation of the bustee remains in force under clause (a) of sub-section (2) of section 131.

Power to Corporation to except bustee from section 159.

161. The Corporation may, by order, from time to time and for such period as may be specified in the order, except any bustee or any part of a bustee from the operation of section 159; and while any such order is in force in respect of any bustee or part thereof, the other provisions of this Act as to the payment and recovery of the consolidated rate shall apply to such bustee or part.

Requisition for name of owner.

162. The Executive Officer may, by written notice, require the occupier of any land or building to furnish him within fifteen days with the name and address of the owner of such land or building.

Occupier liable to owner's rate on failure to furnish owner's name and address.

163. If the occupier of any land or building refuses or neglects to comply with a notice served under section 162, he shall be liable to pay the rate payable by the owner on account of such land or building; and, on non-payment thereof, the Executive Officer may recover the same by distress and sale of any movable property found on the land or in the building:

Provided that no arrear of the rate which has remained due from the owner of any land or building for more than one year shall be so recovered from the occupier thereof.

(Part IV.—Chapter X.—The consolidated rate.— Section 164.)

164. (1) When an objection to a valuation has been made under section 139, the consolidated rate shall, pending the final determination of the objection, be paid on the previous valuation.

(2) If, when the objection has been finally determined, the previous valuation is altered, then—

(a) any sum paid in excess shall be refunded or allowed to be set off against any present or future demand of the Corporation under this Act, and

(b) any deficiency shall be deemed to be an arrear of the consolidated rate and shall be payable and recoverable as such :

Provided that—

(i) if any premises have, for the purposes of valuation under section 131, been for the first time valued or subdivided or amalgamated with any other premises, and an objection to the valuation thereof has been made under section 139, then the consolidated rate shall, pending the final determination of the objection, be paid on such valuation; and

(ii) if, when such objection has been finally determined, such valuation is reduced, and if the consolidated rate has already been paid thereon, then the sum paid in excess shall be refunded or allowed to be set off against any present or future demand of the Corporation under this Act.

(Part V.—Chapter XVIII.—Drains, privies and other receptacles for filth.—Sections 281-284.)

(2) The Corporation may at any time, by written notice, require any person within whose premises there is situated, within fifty feet of any tank, well, water-course or reservoir for the storage of water, any receptacle mentioned or referred to in sub-section (1), to remove such receptacle.

297. The Corporation shall, so far as they may consider it necessary to do so for the public convenience, cause such public streets, squares and gardens, as they may from time to time determine, to be watered, oiled or otherwise treated in a suitable manner, and for that purpose may provide such animals, water-carts, materials and other apparatus as they may think necessary.

298. Streets and public places shall be maintained, repaired, protected and otherwise regulated in accordance with the rules contained in Schedule XVI.

Power to Corporation to remove or alter verandah, etc., or fixtures attached to building which project, etc., over public street or land.

299. (1) When any verandah, platform or other similar structure or any fixture attached to a building so as to form part of the building, whether erected before or after the commencement of this Act, causes a projection, encroachment or obstruction over or on any public street or any land vested in the Corporation, they may, by written notice, require the owner or occupier of the building to remove or alter such structure or fixture.

(2) If the expense of removing or altering any such structure or fixture is paid by the occupier of the building, in any case in which the same was not erected by himself, he shall be entitled to deduct any reasonable expense incurred for the purposes of such removal or alteration from the rent payable by him to the owner of the building.

(Part V.—Chapter XX.—Streets and public places.—Sections 300—302.)

(3) If the owner or occupier of the building proves that any such structure or fixture was erected before the first day of June, 1863, or that it was erected on or after that day with the consent of any municipal authority duly empowered in that behalf, the Corporation shall, after such structure or fixture has been removed, make reasonable compensation to every person who suffers damage by the removal or alteration thereof.

Power to Corporation to cause wall to be removed or to remove other obstructions in public street.

300. (1) The Corporation may, after giving notice to him, require any person to remove any wall and may of their own motion remove any fence, rail, post, platform, or other obstruction, projection or encroachment (not being a portion of a building or fixture referred to in section 299) which has been erected or set up, and any materials or goods which have been deposited, in a public street or in or over any drain or aqueduct in a public street, whether the offender be prosecuted under this Act or not;

and the offender shall be liable for the payment of the expense of such removal.

(2) When under sub-section (1), the Corporation cause any wall to be removed or remove any other obstruction, projection or encroachment from land which forms part of a public street, no compensation shall be payable, but the Corporation shall be bound to provide proper means of access to and from the street if none exists already.

301. (1) When any work is being executed by the Corporation in any public street, they shall, so far as may reasonably be practicable, make adequate provision for—

(b) proper access to all premises approached from such street; and

(c) any drainage, water-supply, or means of lighting which are interrupted by reason of the execution of such work.

(2) The Corporation shall pay compensation to any person who sustains special damage by reason of the execution of any such work.

302. (1) If the Corporation consider it expedient to prescribe for any public street a building-line or a street alignment, or both a building-line and a street alignment, they shall give public notice of their intention to do so:

Provided that no building-line shall ordinarily be prescribed for any street laid out and made before the commencement of this Act.

(Part V.—Chapter XX.—Streets and public places.— Section 303.)

(2) Every such notice shall specify a period within which objections will be received; and a copy of the notice shall be sent by post to every owner of premises abutting on such street who is registered in respect of such premises in the books of the municipality:

Provided that failure or omission to serve such notice on any owner shall not invalidate proceedings under this section.

(3) The Corporation shall consider all objections received within the said period, and shall hear any objector who comes forward within such period as they may fix in this behalf, and may then make an order prescribing a building-line or a street alignment, or both a building-line and a street alignment for such public street.

A register or book with plans attached shall be kept by the Corporation showing all public streets in respect of which a building-line or street alignment has been prescribed, and such register shall contain such particulars as to the Executive Officer may appear to be necessary and shall be open to inspection by any person upon payment of such fee as may from time to time be prescribed by the Corporation.

(4) A building-line shall not be prescribed so as to extend further back than the main front wall of any building (other than a boundary wall) abutting on the street at its widest part.

(5) Every order made under sub-section (3) shall be published in the Calcutta Gazette, and shall take effect from the date of such publication.

Restrictions on erection of, or addition to, buildings or boundary walls within street alignment or building-line.

303. (1) No portion of any building or boundary wall shall be erected or added to within a street alignment prescribed under section 302:

Provided that the Corporation may, in their discretion, permit additions to a building to be made within a street alignment, if such additions merely add to the height of, and rest upon, an existing building or wall, upon the owner of the building executing, if required to do so by the Corporation, an agreement binding himself and his successors in interest—

(a) not to claim compensation in the event of the Corporation at any time thereafter calling upon him or such successors, by written notice, to remove any addition made to any building in pursuance of such permission, or any portion thereof, and

(b) to pay the expenses of such removal.

(2) If the Corporation refuse to grant the permission applied for to add to any building on the ground that the proposed site falls wholly or in part within a street alignment prescribed under section 302, and if such site, or the portion thereof which falls within such alignment, be not acquired by the

(Part V.—Chapter XX.—Streets and public places.—Sections 304, 305.)

Corporation within six months after the date of such refusal, they shall pay reasonable compensation to the owner of the site.

(3) No person shall erect or add to any building between a street alignment and the building-line without first obtaining the permission of the Corporation to do so:

Provided that it shall not be necessary to obtain permission under this sub-section to erect, between a street alignment and the building-line,—

(a) a porch or balcony, or,

(b) along not more than one-third of the frontage, an outhouse not exceeding fifteen feet in height.

(4) If the Corporation grant permission under sub-section (3), they may require the applicant to execute an agreement in accordance with the proviso to sub-section (1).

Power to Corporation to take possession of, and add to street, land situated within prescribed street alignment or covered by projecting buildings.

304. (1) The Corporation may at any time, after giving notice to the owner of the land of their intention, take possession of—

(a) any land (abutting on a public street) upon which any portion of any building or wall, projecting beyond the front of the adjoining building or wall, on either side of such first-mentioned building or wall, has collapsed or been demolished or burnt down, and

(b) any land not covered by buildings (including land on which a building has collapsed or been demolished or burnt down) which is situated within a street alignment prescribed under section 302, after making full compensation to the owner thereof for any direct damage which he may sustain thereby and shall take possession of any land as specified, in clause (b) if the owner thereof calls upon them to do so.

(2) Any land taken possession of under sub-section (1) shall forthwith be added to and become part of the said street, and shall vest in the Corporation.

Explanation.—The expression "direct damage," as used in sub-section (1) with reference to land, means the market-value of the land taken and the depreciation, if any, in the ordinary market-value of the rest of the land resulting from the area being reduced in size; but does not include damage due to any particular use to which the owner may allege that he intended to put the land although such use may be injuriously affected by the reduction of the site.

Power to Corporation to set buildings forward to improve line of public street.

305. The Corporation may, upon such terms as they think fit, allow any building or wall to be set forward for the purpose of improving the line of a public street.

(Part V.—Chapter XX.—Streets and public places.—Sections 306—309.)

(c) turn, divert, or temporarily or permanently close any public street or part thereof, or permanently close any public square or garden; and (d) widen, open, enlarge, or otherwise improve any public street, square or garden.

Power to Corporation to dispose of a permanently closed street, square or garden.

307. (1) When any public street, or part thereof, or any public square or garden is permanently closed under section 306, the Corporation may sell or lease the site of so much of the road-way and foot-path as is no longer required, or the site of the square or garden, as the case may be, making due compensation to, or providing means of access for, any person who may suffer damage by such closing.

(2) In determining such compensation under section 523, the court shall make allowance for any benefit accruing to the same premises or any adjacent premises belonging to the same owner from the construction or improvement of any other public street, square or garden, at or about the same time that the public street, square or garden, on account of which the compensation is paid, is closed.

Projected public streets.

Projected public streets.

308. (1) The Corporation may from time to time prepare schemes and plans of projected public streets, showing the direction of such streets, the street alignment and building-line on each side of them, their intended width, and such other details as may appear desirable.

(2) The width of such projected streets, inclusive of space for foot-paths, shall not be less than forty feet or, in a bustee, twenty feet:

Provided that—

(a) the Corporation may, for special reasons, reduce the width of any projected street, but not so as to be less than thirty feet or in a bustee sixteen feet; and

(b) this sub-section shall not apply in any case in which the projected street, or any part thereof, runs along an existing street and the Corporation consider it impracticable to widen the street to the extent of forty feet or twenty feet, as the case may be.

Provisions of sections 302 and 303 to apply to projected public streets.

309. The provisions of sections 302 and 303 shall, with all necessary modifications, apply to public streets projected under section 308.

(Part V.—Chapter XX.—Streets and public places.—Sections 310, 311.)

Acquisition of land and buildings.

Power to Corporation to acquire land and buildings for improvement of public streets, squares and gardens.

310. (1) The Corporation may acquire—

(a) any land required for the purpose of opening, widening, extending or otherwise improving any public street, square or garden, or of making any new public street, square or garden, and

(b) the buildings (if any) standing upon such land.

(2) The Corporation, with the sanction of the Local Government, and after giving due notice of their intention and an opportunity to any objector, who appears within such period as they may fix, to be heard in this connection, may acquire, in addition to any land and buildings acquired under sub-section (1), any land outside any proposed street alignment, with the buildings (if any) standing thereupon, which the Corporation may, for any of the purposes mentioned in sub-section (1), including the recoupment of the cost or any portion of the cost incurred for any such purposes, consider it expedient to acquire.

Abandonment of acquisition.

Abandonment of acquisition in consideration of special payment.

311. (1) In any case in which the Local Government have sanctioned the acquisition of land under section 310, sub-section (2), the owner of the land, or any person having an interest therein greater than a lease for years having seven years to run, may make an application to the Corporation, requesting that the acquisition of the land be abandoned in consideration of the payment by such person of a fee to be fixed by the Corporation in that behalf.

(2) The Corporation shall admit every such application if it reaches them before the time fixed by the Collector under section 9 of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, for making claims in reference to the land:

Provided that unless the application is made by all the persons who have an interest in the land greater than a lease for years having seven years to run, the application shall not be deemed to be admitted unless the person applying undertakes to pay in one instalment the full fee payable under sub-section (3) and thereafter pays such fee.

Explanation.—A mortgagee shall not be deemed to be a person having an interest in the land greater than a lease for years having seven years to run.

(3) If the Corporation decide to admit any such application, they shall forthwith inform the Collector, and the Collector shall thereupon stay proceedings for the acquisition of the land, for such period as the Corporation may request, and the Corporation shall proceed to fix a fee in consideration of which the acquisition of the land may be abandoned.

(Part V.—Chapter XX.—Streets and public places.—Section 311.)

(4) In fixing the fee to be paid in consideration of the abandonment of the acquisition of the land, the Corporation shall, so far as to them may appear to be practicable, fix a sum which in their opinion represents two-thirds of the increment in the value of the land, which will in their opinion accrue to that land as a result of the improvements effected in the locality by the scheme for the purposes of which the acquisition has been sanctioned.

(5) Such fee shall be and remain a charge on the land, in respect of which it has been fixed, until the repayment thereof with interest in the manner hereinafter provided and shall be payable by the applicant on or before a date to be fixed by the Corporation in this behalf; and such date shall not be less than four years from the publication of the notification under section 6 of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, nor shall I of 1894.
such date be a date before that on which the scheme is declared by the Corporation to be completed in so far as it affects such land.

(6) Before the date so fixed, the person from whom the Corporation have arranged to accept the said fee, may, if the Corporation are satisfied that the security offered by him is sufficient, execute an agreement with the Corporation either—

(i) to leave the said fee outstanding as a charge on his interest in the land, subject to the payment in perpetuity of interest at a rate not exceeding seven per cent. per annum, the said interest to run from the date fixed under sub-section (5), or

(ii) to pay the said fee by such number of equal yearly or half-yearly instalments of principal or of principal and interest, as may be approved by the Corporation, interest in both cases being calculated at a rate not exceeding seven per cent. per annum on the amount outstanding.

(7) When the said fee has been paid on or before the date fixed under sub-section (5), or when an agreement has been executed in pursuance of sub-section (6) in respect of any land, the proceedings for the acquisition of the land shall be deemed to be abandoned.

(8) If the said fee be not paid on or before the date fixed under sub-section (5), the Collector shall then proceed to acquire the land.

(9) If any sum payable under an agreement executed in pursuance of sub-section (6) be not paid on the date on which it is due, or on such later date as the Corporation may in their discretion fix in this behalf, so much of the fee fixed by the Corporation under sub-section (3) as is still unpaid, shall be payable on that date, in addition to the said sum.

(Part V.—Chapter XX.—Streets and public places.—Sections 312—314.)

(10) At any time after an agreement has been executed in pursuance of clause (i) of sub-section (6) any person may pay off the balance outstanding of the charge created thereby, with interest due, if any, at a rate not exceeding seven per cent. per annum, up to the date of such payment.

Recovery of money payable in pursuance of section 311.

312. When an agreement has been executed by any person in pursuance of section 311, sub-section (6), in respect of any land, and any money payable in pursuance of that section is not duly paid, the same shall be recoverable by the Corporation (together with interest up to the date of realization, at a rate not exceeding seven per cent. per annum), under the provisions of this Act;

313. If any land in respect of which an agreement has been executed, or a payment has been accepted, in pursuance of section 311, sub-section (6), be subsequently required for any of the purposes of this Act, the agreement or payment shall not be deemed to prevent the acquisition of the land in pursuance of a fresh declaration published under section 6 of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894.

CHAPTER XXVI.

INSPECTION AND REGULATION OF PREMISES, AND OF FACTORIES, TRADES AND PLACES OF PUBLIC RESORT.

Premises generally.

Inspection and regulation of premises.

380. Subject to the provisions of this Act, land and buildings shall respectively be inspected, cleansed, secured, repaired, drained, or otherwise regulated in accordance with the rules contained in Schedule XVIII.

Procedure in case of buildings deemed unfit for human habitation.

381. (1) If, for any reason, any building or portion of a building intended for, or used as, a dwelling-place appears to the Corporation to be unfit for human habitation, they may require the owner or occupier of such building to make such alterations as they think necessary in the building in order to make it fit for human habitation, if they consider that this can be done; but whether they think it can be made fit for human habitation or not, they may, in either case, after giving the owner or occupier an opportunity of being heard, apply to a Magistrate to prohibit the further use of such building or portion thereof for such purpose; and the Magistrate shall serve a notice on such owner or occupier so as to give him an opportunity of being heard in the Court, and, after such inquiry as he thinks fit to make, may, by written order, prohibit the further use thereof, or may pass such other order as he may deem just and proper.

(2) When any such prohibition has been made, the Corporation may—

(i) inspect such building by day or by night, and

(ii) take such order as may be necessary to preclude the further use of the same, or of the portion specified in the prohibition, as a human habitation.

(3) When any such prohibition has been made, no owner or occupier of such building shall use, or suffer the same, or the portion specified in the prohibition, to be used for human habitation until—

(a) the Executive Officer certifies in writing that the causes rendering it unfit for human habitation have been removed to his satisfaction, or

(b) a Magistrate, by written order, withdraws the prohibition.

(4) The Corporation shall prepare and maintain at the Municipal office a list of buildings in respect of which the Magistrate has passed an order under sub-section (1), and such list shall contain such particulars as to the action taken by the Corporation or the owner in pursuance of such order or otherwise, as the Executive Officer shall think fit and shall be open to inspection by the public free of charge.

(Part V.—Chapter XXVI.—Inspection and regulation of premises, and of factories, trades and places of public resort.—Sections 382, 383.)

Power to Corporation to require demolition of, or execution of work on, building unfit for human habitation.

382. (1) When a Magistrate has prohibited the use of a building for human habitation under section 381 and such prohibition has been in force for three months, the Corporation shall take into consideration the question of the demolition of such building, and shall give notice of the time (being some time not less than one month after the service of the notice) and place at which such question will be considered to the owner and to the occupier (if any) of the building, and the said owner and occupier shall be entitled to be heard when the question is so taken into consideration.

(2) If, upon such consideration, the Corporation are of opinion that the building has not been rendered fit for human habitation, and that the necessary steps are not being taken with all due diligence to render it so fit, they shall cause a written notice to be served on the said owner and occupier and also to be put on some conspicuous part of such building, requiring such owner and occupier to demolish the building or any portion thereof, as the case may be, or to execute such work as in the opinion of the Corporation may be necessary to render the building fit for human habitation.

(3) If such owner or occupier undertakes to execute with due diligence the work necessary to render the building fit for human habitation, and the Corporation consider that it can be so rendered fit for human habitation, the Corporation may postpone the operation of the said notice for such time as they think sufficient for the purpose of giving the said owner or occupier an opportunity of executing the necessary work.

Power to Corporation to call for statement of accommodation.

383. (1) The owner of any building shall, within a period of a fortnight after receipt of a written notice from the Corporation requiring him to do so, submit to the Corporation a signed statement of the following particulars with respect to such building or any part thereof, namely,—

384. (1) If it comes to the knowledge of the Corporation from a statement received under section 383, or after an inspection made under rule 1 of Schedule XVIII, or in any other way, that a dwelling-house, or a public building or hut which is used as a dwelling-place, or any room in any such house, public building or hut, is so overcrowded as to endanger the health of the inmates thereof, they may require the owner to abate such overcrowding in the manner specified in such requisition. After giving the owner an opportunity of being heard in regard to such requisition, the Corporation may direct him within such time as they may fix to take such measures as they think fit to abate such overcrowding. If the owner fails to take such measures, the Corporation may apply to the Magistrate to abate such overcrowding.

The Magistrate, after such inquiry as he thinks fit to make, may, by written order, require the owner of the building or room, within such time as the Magistrate may prescribe in the said order, to abate such overcrowding by reducing the number of lodgers, tenants or other inmates of the building or room, or may pass such other order as he may deem just and proper.

Every such order shall be binding and operative on the owner as well as on the occupier, and every occupier shall, on the written requisition of the Corporation informing him of the order, be bound to vacate the same within such time as may be specified in such requisition.

(Part V.—Chapter XXVI.—Inspection and regulation of premises, and of factories, trades and places of public resort.—Sections 386, 387.)

(2) The Corporation may refuse to give such permission, if they are of opinion that the establishment, alteration, enlargement or extension of such factory, workshop or workplace in the proposed position would be objectionable by reason of the density of the population in the neighbourhood thereof, or would be a nuisance to the inhabitants of the neighbourhood.

Premises not to be used for certain purposes without a license.

386. (1) No person shall use or permit to be used any premises for any of the following purposes without or otherwise than in conformity with the terms of a license granted by the Corporation in this behalf, namely,—

(Part V.—Chapter XXVI.—Inspection and regulation of premises, and of factories, trades and places of public resort.—Sections 388, 389.)

(2) No objections to any such declaration shall be received after a period of one month from the publication of such notice.

(3) The Corporation shall consider all objections received within the said period, giving any person affected by the said notice an opportunity of being heard by them during such consideration, and may thereupon make a declaration in accordance with the notice published under sub-section (1), with such modifications (if any) as they may think fit, but not so as to extend its application.

(4) Every such declaration shall be published in the Calcutta Gazette, and in such other manner as the Corporation may determine, and shall take effect from the date of such publication in the Calcutta Gazette.

(5) No person shall in any area specified in any such declaration use any premises for any of the said purposes.

(3) If, upon such examination, it appears that sub-section (1) has been contravened by reason of anything contained in or proceeding from the said works, pipes or conduits, the expenses of such laying open and examination, and of any measure which the Corporation, in their discretion, may require to be adopted for the discontinuance of the cause of such contravention, shall be paid by the owner of the said works, pipes or conduits, or by the person who has the and such covenant shall be binding on all transferees from the original purchaser or lessee.

(3) Before possession of any land or building is given to any person by the Corporation in pursuance of any contract (other than a lease) made under this section, the Corporation shall take security from such person for the due carrying out and maintenance of work in accordance with the said scheme.

(Part VI.—Chapter XXXIII.—Acquisition, disposal and general improvement of land and buildings.—Sections 474, 475).

Provided that the prior right referred to in clause (b) need not be offered or put up to auction, if the Corporation consider that to do so would be detrimental to the carrying out of the purposes of this Act:

Provided also that before putting up to auction the right to take a lease or purchase such land, the Corporation may fix a minimum reserve price, below which the said right shall not be sold.

Exemption.

Exemption of places of public worship from acquisition.

(ii) if it be shown that, before such declaration was published, the owner of the land or building had taken active steps and incurred expenditure to secure a more profitable disposition of the same, further compensation, based on his actual loss, may be paid to him ;

(Part VI.—Chapter XXXIII.—Acquisition, disposal and general improvement of land and bulidings.—Section 476.)

(iii) if the market-value is specially high in consequence of the property being put to a use which is unlawful or contrary to public policy, that use shall be disregarded and the market-value shall be deemed to be the market-value of the land or building if put to ordinary uses;

(iv) if the market-value has been increased by means of any improvement made by the owner or his predecessor in interest within one year before the aforesaid declaration was published, such increase shall be disregarded, unless it be proved that the improvement was made bonâ-fide and not in contemplation of proceedings for the acquisition of the land or building being taken under the said Land Acquisition Act. I of 1894.

Vesting in Corporation of land and buildings acquired under the Land Acquisition Act, 1894

476. On payment by the Corporation of the compensation awarded under the said Land Acquisition Act, 1894, in respect of any land or buildings and of any other charges incurred in acquiring the said land or buildings, the same shall vest in the Corporation.

(Schedule XVII.—Rules as to the use of building-sites and the execution of building-work.—Rules 28-30.)

Ground floor.

28. The ground floor of every domestic building shall be covered throughout, at the height of the plinth, with some impermeable material approved by the Corporation, unless such floor be supported on beams and has a free air-space beneath it.

Court yard of dwelling-house.

29. (1) The minimum superficial area of every court-yard of a dwelling-house shall be one-fourth of the aggregate floor-area of the rooms and verandahs on the ground floor abutting on the court-yard :

Provided that, in determining the said aggregate floor-area,—

(i) only one-half of the floor-area of such rooms and verandahs as abut on another court-yard or on the open space prescribed under rule 30, or rule 32, and

(ii) no portion of the floor-area of such rooms and verandahs as abut on a street not less than twelve feet in width, shall be taken into account.

(2) Any room which is separated only by an open verandah from the court-yard shall, for the purpose of this rule, be deemed to abut on such court-yard.

(3) The minimum width of every such court-yard shall be eight feet.

(4) No portion of any face of a dwelling-house abutting on such court-yard shall intersect any of a series of imaginary lines drawn across the court-yard from the opposite face of the house, at the level of the plinth, at an angle of sixty-eight degrees with the horizontal :

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-rule shall prevent the construction of four-storeyed buildings on two sides of a court-yard where the length of the court-yard opposite such buildings is not less than twenty feet and the width of such court-yard is not less than fifteen feet.

(5) For the purposes of sub-rule (4), the opposite face of the house shall be deemed to be a vertical plane drawn through the most projecting portion of such face excluding any cornice or moulding not exceeding eighteen inches.

(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-rule (4), a dwelling-house abutting on a court-yard of which the greater dimension does not exceed twice the less dimension, shall be held to comply with this rule if, by reason of its abutting on a court-yard of the same area but square in shape, the building would comply with this rule.

Open space in rear of building, regulating the rear height.

30. (1) There shall be, at the back of every domestic building, an open space extending along the entire width of the building and forming part of the site thereof.

(2) The said space shall be of such width that any of a series of imaginary lines drawn across such

(Schedule XVII.—Rules as to the use of building-sites and the execution of building-work.—Rule 31.)

space at an angle of sixty-three-and-a-half degrees with the horizontal, from points on a level with the plinth of the building and situated on that side of the said space which is furthest from the building, shall not intersect any portion (other than open or balustraded parapets not more than four feet in height) of the building :

Provided as follows—

(i) the minimum width of such space shall be ten feet ;

(ii) in the case of three-storeyed buildings, the angle referred to in this rule shall be increased from sixty-three-and-a-half degrees to sixty-eight degrees ; and

(iii) in the case of any building in which there are both an outer and an inner court-yard, a minimum distance of six feet shall be permitted.

(3) If it is proposed to erect one or more buildings on the site of an existing building or if two or more buildings are proposed to be erected on any one site (whether or not such buildings are connected by means of verandahs or gangways or in any similar manner), the open space referred to in sub-rule (1) shall be provided at the back of each such building.

(4) This rule shall not apply in the case of—

(a) a building the back of which abuts on a public square or street or a place dedicated to public use and not likely to be built upon not less than sixteen feet in width ;

(b) a building the back of which abuts on a public street less than sixteen feet in width, if the owner makes a free gift to the Corporation of all land comprised within the site of the building, which falls within eight feet of the centre line of such street as prescribed by the Corporation under rule 3, sub-rule (6) ; and

(c) a building to which rule 24 applies :

Provided that, in cases (a) and (b), the height of the building shall, in accordance with the provisions of rule 3, be regulated by the width of the public square or street on which it abuts.

(5) For the purposes of this rule, the back of a building shall be deemed to be that face of the building which is furthest from any street at the side of which the building is situated :

Provided that, where a building is situated at the side of more than one street, the back of the building shall, unless the Corporation otherwise direct, be deemed to be that face of the building which is furthest from the widest of such streets.

Relaxation of rule 30 in certain cases.

31. If any person desires to erect a domestic building upon a site which is irregular or of such a nature that it is impracticable to provide an open space in the rear of the building of the dimensions prescribed by

(Schedule XVII.—Rules as to the use of building-sites and the execution of building-work.—Rule 32.)

rule 30, the Corporation may relax the provisions of that rule:—

Provided that—

(a) such open space shall be left as the Corporation may consider practicable, having regard to all the circumstances of the case; and

(b) not more than two-thirds of the total area of the site shall be occupied by buildings.

Open space at sides of building.

32. (1) Except in the case of buildings to which rule 24 applies, if either side of a domestic building is not attached to the adjacent building, and if such side does not abut on a public square or street which is not less than six feet in width, or on a private street or partition passage which, in the opinion of the Corporation, is likely always to be kept open to the sky and which is not less than eight feet in width, there shall be between the buildings an open space extending along the entire length of such side and forming part of the side of the said domestic building:

Provided that attachment of any building to the adjacent building shall not be allowed (except with the permission of the Corporation) in areas declared for the purpose if either of the buildings is a dwelling-house.

(2) The minimum distance across such space from every part of the said domestic building to the boundary line of the land or building immediately opposite such part shall be—

(a) six feet, if there is a building next to such boundary line or within two feet of it, or

(b) four feet, if there is an open space of two feet or more on the other side of such boundary line:

Provided that where there is a public street by the side of the site which is less than six feet wide, the owner may, by giving to the Corporation free of charge such land as will make the street six feet wide, be exempted from leaving further side space under this rule,

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in this rule, where a site adjacent to the site of a proposed building is not occupied by a masonry building situated within ten feet of the boundary line between the two sites and within twenty-four feet from the frontage of the street on which the two sites abut, the proposed building may, with the sanction of the Corporation, be erected along the said boundary line up to a depth of twenty-four feet from such street frontage, unless, in the opinion of the Corporation, there is any objection to any building which may be subsequently erected on the adjacent site being attached to the building so erected.

(Schedule XVII.—Rules as to the use of building-sites and the execution of building-work.—Rules 33—37.)

33. (1) Every court-yard of a building, and every open space prescribed by rule 30 or rule 32, shall be raised at least one foot above the level of the centre of the nearest street, so as to admit of easy drainage into the street.

(2) Every such court-yard and open space shall form part of the site of the building, shall be open to the sky throughout its entire area, and shall be kept accessible for the purpose of cleansing; and no structure shall be erected within or above, or so as to project over, the same :

Provided that—

(a) a one-seated or two-seated connected-privy or a privy with a bath-room attached thereto or two connected-privies, not exceeding forty square feet in floor-area in the aggregate, exclusive of walls, may be erected in the open space left under rule 30, sub-rule (2); and

(b) such privy or privies with attached bath-room may have as many storeys over them as there are storeys in the house to which they belong, each of such storeys being connected with the main building by a gangway, or in the case of two separate privies two gangways or bridges, not more than three feet in width for each privy and not exceeding six feet in width in the aggregate.

(3) The provisions of sub-rule (2) shall apply only to the minimum area prescribed under this schedule for any court-yard or open space referred to in the said sub-rule.

Paving and draining of court-yards and open spaces.

34. All court-yards in a domestic building, and all other open spaces therein not exceeding six feet in width, shall be paved with some impermeable substance and drained to the satisfaction of the Corporation.

Space to be added to street not to be taken into account under rules 23, 24, 30 and 32.

35. Except with the permission of the Corporation, for the purpose of calculating the open space required to be left under rules 23, 24, 30 and 32, no space which falls within the alignment of a street or is included within the alignment of a projected public street shall be taken into account.

Open space prescribed for one site not to be taken for another site.

36. No building shall at any time be erected on any open space prescribed under this schedule for a building and forming part of the site thereof, nor shall such open space be taken into account in determining the area of any open space required, under this schedule, for any other building.

Position of privies in a domestic building.

37. No room other than a bath-room, privy or urinal shall be placed over a privy in a domestic building, and no privy shall be placed in a domestic building under any room other than a bath-room, privy or urinal.

Provided that, if the Corporation consider that any court-yard, or any open space provided in pursuance of rule 39, is sufficient for the accommodation and passage of such carts, no separate space need be provided under this rule.

(2) Except with the permission of the Corporation no structure which would impede the passage of carts shall be erected within or above, or so as to project over any open space provided under this rule.

63. Notwithstanding anything contained in rule 59—

(a) if any street shown in the site-plan is an intended private street, the Corporation may, in their discretion, refuse to grant permission to erect a masonry building or to convert one or more huts or temporary structures into a masonry building until the street is commenced or completed, and

(b) the Corporation may for special reasons grant permission to erect a masonry building, or to convert one or more huts or temporary structures into a masonry building, on any site without reference to its position in relation to any street.

(3) If any masonry building, permission to erect which was granted before the commencement of this Act, is not wholly completed within three years from the commencement of this Act, the said permission shall be deemed to have lapsed, and any work done thereunder, after the said three years, shall be deemed to have been done without permission:

Provided that the Corporation may, for special reasons, extend the said period of three years.
